NEW RESELLER INFORMATION

“ But enough about us, let’s talk about you.”
Or more specifically, about your Business.

If you would like to join the growing family of Lou’s 222 quality product resellers, we would love to be able to provide you with both the products and the support to ensure you can meet the growing customer demand for our carefully crafted polishes and protectants.

Of course, the easiest way to purchase Lou’s 222 is online via Credit Card or PayPal. Many of our volume and bulk purchasers have provided Corporate Credit Card information which is utilized to process their orders and shipping. Some resellers, however, prefer to issue Purchase Orders and pay upon receipt of invoice. In these instances, we request credit references and take a 50% deposit on the first order.

If you wish to provide us with an authorized Credit Card number for your purchases, please complete the following and return this form to our sales office via e-mail or regular mail.
